

Member CRSC-A12-04 - Conduct Review Decision

admitted to and was found guilty of conduct unbecoming a member of the College. In January 2002 criminal charges were laid against the respondent for assault upon his partner, which were stayed in April 2003. The respondent had a history of drug and alcohol abuse. On December 6, 2004, the Conduct Review Sub-Committee approved the Statement of Agreed Facts and Disposition. The Sub-Committee accepted that the appropriate penalty be an indefinite suspension of his certificate of qualification, pending completion of specific conditions. Publication of the member's name was withheld due to his medical circumstances.
