

Singh, David Balmeki - Consent Resolution Agreement

admitted to professional misconduct. In September 2008, Mr. Singh was employed as a teacher-on-call when he completed a one-month full-time assignment in a grade six class at an elementary school. During this assignment, Mr. Singh engaged in extensive verbal abuse of students in his class. For example, he referred to students as “losers” and “jackasses”, told one student he didn’t have brain cells, told the class that he would only teach the girls and not the boys and referred to one student as “stupid”. On May 10, 2010, the Preliminary Investigation Sub-Committee approved the Consent Resolution Agreement in which Mr. Singh agreed to a one-week suspension from the date of approval and his undertaking to successfully complete a course in anger management. As a result, the citation was rescinded.
