

Geisler, Gerald Douglas - Conduct Review Decision

admitted to and was found guilty of professional misconduct. The respondent repeatedly showed videos to his students during class that contained inappropriate, including some sexual, images. On December 2, 2004, the Conduct Review Sub-Committee approved the Statement of Agreed Facts and Disposition. The Sub-Committee accepted that the appropriate penalty was a three-month suspension of his certificate of qualification. Publication was delayed due to certain extenuating circumstances in this case.
