

DISCIPLINE CASE SUMMARY

a. Billie-Jo Angeleah Johnson (Boehm) (DOB 1969/03/07)

b. Professional misconduct.

c. The hearing was held December 12, 13, 17–20, 2001; March 11–15, 21, 22, 26, 28; April 17, 18, 19; June 17, 2002; and January 16, 2003 at the College offices in Vancouver. The report and recommendations of the hearing Panel were presented to Council on April 3, 2003. This matter was brought before the College in accordance with Section 16 (1) of the School Act.

d. The Hearing Panel found that:

- Between October 1, 1998 and June 30, 1999 Billie-Jo Johnson engaged in an inappropriate and personal relationship with a 17-year old male student whom she taught. This included numerous in-school and out-of-school activities of which his parents were either unaware or disapproved.
- Between October 1, 1998 and June 30 1999 Ms. Johnson engaged in an inappropriate sexual relationship with this student. This included numerous acts of sexual intercourse.
- Between July 1, 1999 and May 31, 2000 Ms. Johnson continued the inappropriate personal and sexual relationship with the young man following his graduation. During much of this time his parents were not aware of his whereabouts and how to contact him.
- On or about January 1999 Ms. Johnson lied to her employer during an investigation into her relationship with the student.
- Between January 1, 1999 and April 30, 1999 Ms. Johnson counselled the student to lie to school district and police investigators regarding their relationship.
- Following January 28, 1999 when a letter of reprimand was issued to her, Ms. Johnson did not restrict her contact with the student to professional, school-related matters as directed. The sexual activity continued even after the student moved to another community.

The Hearing Panel determined that Billie-Jo Angeleah Johnson (Boehm) was guilty of professional misconduct.

e. The Hearing Panel considered that Billie-Jo Angeleah Johnson's actions were professional misconduct because they constituted serious and repeated breaches of the trust placed upon her as a teacher. The Panel recommended to Council that Billie-Jo Angeleah Johnson's certificate be cancelled and her membership in the College be terminated.
