

BC College
of Teachers

DISCIPLINE CASE SUMMARY

- a. Thomas Edward Probst (DOB: 49.03.22)

- b. Professional Misconduct.
- c. The report and recommendations of the hearing panel were presented to Council on December 10, 1992.
- d. The citation alleged that Thomas Edward Probst committed professional misconduct consisting of one count of sexual assault and two counts of indecent assault of female students in his care. Mr. Probst was found guilty and sentenced to nine months of imprisonment on each count to be served concurrently. The first count involved indecent assault of a thirteen-year-old female student in 1980. The second count involved an indecent assault on a thirteen-year-old student in or about 1978. The third count involved sexual assault of a thirteen-year-old student in 1988. Two of these assaults occurred during school-sponsored field trips and one of the assaults occurred on the school premises.
- e. The College of Teachers found the member guilty of professional misconduct and cancelled the individual's membership and certificate of qualification.