

BC College
of Teachers

DISCIPLINE CASE SUMMARY

- a. Randy Emerson Brodeur (D.O.B. 56/09/21)

- b. Conduct Unbecoming a Member.
- c. The report and recommendation of the hearing panel were presented to Council on May 16, 1991.
- d. The citation alleged that Randy Emerson Brodeur committed conduct unbecoming a member when he was convicted of two counts of sexual assault upon a minor.
- e. Mr. Brodeur's criminal conviction resulted in a suspended sentence and four months probation on the first count, and a sentence of four months served in the Prince George Regional Correctional Centre. The specific charges were under Section 271 of the Criminal Code of Canada. The College of Teacher's found the teacher guilty of conduct unbecoming a member and determined that the teacher's membership in the College of Teachers be terminated and that his certificate of qualification be cancelled.